

from the direction of Wilson Foster's - was on foot Mr Kendall testified I saw the prisoner on that Friday morning about 8 o'clock between Kendalls & Carltons going ~~in~~ ^{out} direction of the Bates place
I asked him, if he had been after the woman.
He said, No. I have quit that. He was walking - his pants seemed wet with dew.

Cross Examined. From Foster's house to Dula's the way he was going was as near as any;
Mrs James Scott, testified I saw the prisoner on that Friday morning after breakfast; he was walking. I asked him to come in.
He declined - said he wanted to see my brother Washington Anderson - sat on the steps a few minutes & left in the direction of James Melton's Pauline Foster, testified I saw the prisoner early that Friday morning at James Melton's house I had started out to the field to plant corn, when seeing the cows coming I went back to the house to get the milk vessels - when I got back to the house - Dula was in the house - leaving over ^{Ann} ~~Mr~~ Melton (James Melton's wife) talking to her in a low voice - She was in bed. He asked me what I was going to do that day. I said I said I was going to drop corn. He replied, it was hot to work.
I had one cow to milk & when I came back he was gone. I saw the prisoner on Thursday
